

From: Mel Krewall
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/25/02 8:36am
Subject: Comment on the Microsoft Antitrust case

It is my opinion that the current proposed settlement with Microsoft is wholly inadequate to make any change to Microsoft's business practices. They have already entered into two consent decrees and have been found guilty in this third instance. I hope the court will reexamine a breakup of the company, which I believe will be the only way any curb can be placed on Microsoft's anti-competitive behavior.

Mel Krewall
Fort Worth, TX